Notes

Membership

- 1 The Chaplaincy of St Andrew's Zurich is a Verein under Swiss law with the legal name of the 'Association of the Anglican Church in Zurich'. The chaplaincy comprises the community of Zurich and the daughter communities of St Gallen, Baden (formerly Turgi), and Zug.
- 2 Members of the Association are all those who have been inscribed on the chaplaincy electoral roll, and all clergy persons licensed to the Chaplaincy of St Andrew's Zurich.
- 3 The chaplaincy electoral roll is made up of those whose names are registered on the electoral roll in accordance with the Diocesan Constitution of the Diocese in Europe and the Church Representation Rules (CRRs) of the Church of England and is reviewed annually prior to the Annual Chaplaincy Meeting. Each applicant for inclusion in the chaplaincy electoral roll may indicate at which community they usually attend public worship.
- 4 Each community shall have a community roll comprising the names of all those who are both listed on the chaplaincy electoral roll and designated thereon as usually attending public worship at that community.
- 5 Names may only be removed from the electoral roll in accordance with the Diocesan Constitution of the Diocese in Europe and the Church Representation Rules (CRRs) of the Church of England.

Use of email addresses and other personal data

- 6 You do not have to provide an email address on this Form. If you do provide one, the Chaplaincy Church Council and the electoral roll officer may use that email address to communicate with you in connection with the maintenance or revision of the Roll or the preparation of a new Roll or with elections to or membership of the Council.
- 7 The Church Representation Rules impose certain requirements for your name and address to be given to a third party, such as the diocesan electoral registration officer, in connection with elections to or membership of a deanery synod, diocesan synod or the House of Laity of the General Synod. If you provide an email address on this Form, it will be given to the third party along with your postal address.
- 8 A third party to whom your name and address have been given under the Church Representation Rules is in certain cases required by the Rules to pass them on to another person, such as the presiding officer in a synodical election. If you provide an email address on this Form, that email address will be given to the other person along with your postal address.
- 9 Any person to whom your email address or other personal data is given under the Church Representation Rules is required by those Rules to hold the data securely. Furthermore, if you do provide an email address on this Form, that does not give anybody the right to use it for any purpose other than those permitted by the Rules; so it cannot, for example, be used for social matters or fund-raising. (Permission may, of course, be given separately for other such uses.)
- 10 The roll is published after each annual revision and after the preparation of a new roll. The published roll will include your name (as well as the name of every other person on the roll) but none of your other personal data (as defined by the relevant Data Protection legislation) will be made public as a result of your inclusion on the roll.

Please refer to the Privacy Notice on the Chaplaincy Website for further information about our use of data, which is governed by local laws.
